Carl Cade

Carl Cade is a seventh-generation Unitarian who grew up in the First Unitarian Church of Oakland. As a teenager, he was active in local, regional, and continental Unitarian leadership. He served on the district and continental Youth Council and moderated the Youth Caucus at the 1995 and 1996 General Assemblies. He also served for eight years on the board of the Unitarian Universalist Fund for a Just Society. Carl leads a team of 20 project managers who build out office space and repositioning projects at a large west coast commercial real estate company.

Born and raised in the Fruitvale District of Oakland and Bernal Heights in San Francisco, Carl worked for 20 years in Los Angeles real estate before returning to San Francisco in April 2020 to take on his current role. He served in numerous volunteer and civic roles with a focus on creating and supporting institutions that create equity and stability in urban communities. Carl holds a BA in Urban Studies and Political Science from Vassar College and an MBA from Harvard Business School. He and his husband Max live in the Western Addition.
