

36. Alejandro Cabrera Clemente

Who was Alejandro Cabrera Clemente? Alejandro Cabrera Clemente was a 49-year-old man from Mexico. Cabrera Clemente had been in the United States for more than 25 years.

How did Alejandro Cabrera Clemente end up in ICE custody? Alejandro Cabrera Clemente was arrested in Chattanooga, Tennessee on January 8, 2026, and was transferred to the privately operated Winn Correctional Detention Center in rural Louisiana on January 13, 2026.

How did Alejandro Cabrera Clemente die in ICE custody? Alejandro Cabrera Clemente died while in ICE custody after being found unresponsive at the Winn Detention Center. Alejandro was taken by ambulance to Winn Parish Medical Center on April 11th, and was later pronounced dead. ICE has not released Cabrera Clemente's cause of death

What happened after Alejandro Cabrera Clemente's death? The Mexican government said it would use all available legal and diplomatic channels to address this latest death, Mexico's Ministry of Foreign Affairs said on Monday.

Sources:

<https://abcnews.com/US/mexican-migrant-47th-person-die-ice-custody-current/story?id=>

<https://newschannel9.com/news/local/chattanooga-man-dies-in-ice-custody-at-louisiana-detention-center-alejandro-cabrera-clemente-death-ice-custody-louisiana-detainee-winn-correctional-center-incident-chattanooga-immigration-arrest>